Liquor Responsible.

Liquor sentiment, liquor distilleries, liquor stores all have their accompaniments. They enrich the soil in which wickedness grows strong and lawlessness fortifies itself. It need surprise no one that the most beastly lynchings that ever stained the State or the South, the more dastardly because so conspicuously excuseless, are to be set down to the demerit of two whisky towns in a temperance State. Their neighbors have a right to hold it against Wadesboro and Salisbury that they are in the business of debauching with drink their own people and the stranger who comes within their gates and that they cannot preserve order within their own boundaries. When a community votes for distilleries and barrooms it votes for the things that go along with them.—Gastonia Gazette.

The intense itching characteristic of salt rheum and eczema is instantly allayed by applying Chamberlain's Salve. As a cure for skin diseases this salve is unequalled. For sale by all dealers at Boone and at Blowing Rock Drug Co.

There is in circulation a horrid, sickening picture of the three negroes lynched at Salisbury last week taken as they hung from the tree, after the bodies had been riddled with bullets and other wise riddled with bullets. Many of these pictures were printed on post cards which were mailed to the Salisbury postoffice. Postmaster Ramsey very promptly held them all up and referred to the Postoffice Department the question as to whether or not the matter is mailable, receiving the prompt reply that it is not. This post card incident is a scandalous after-clap of an affair which has been shameful in all its features. There is but slight difference in the degree of depravity of taste and amount of sensibility of those who want to handle and circulate these cards and those who cut off for souvenirs the fingers, toes and ears of the negroes while they hung.—Charlotte Observer.

Geo. W. Samuels and John W. Haaty, the revenue officers who assaulted Editor Deal, of the Wilkesboro Chronicle, for exposing revenue graft in Wilkes county, will be denied participation in the campaign of their friend, Congressman Blackburn. While the campaign which will elect Mr. Hackett is in progress these worthies will view it from behind the bars of the Wilkes county jail. The only trouble with their sentences are that they should have provided for their being worked on the roads.—The Landmark.

Chamberlain's

Colic, Cholera & Diarrhea Remedy

Almost every family has need of a reliable remedy for colic or diarrhea at some time during the year.

This remedy is recommended by dealers who have sold it for many years and know its value.

It has received thousands of testimonials from grateful people.

It has been prescribed by physicians with the most satisfactory results.

It has often saved life before medicine could have been sent for or a physician summoned.

It only costs a quarter. Can you afford to risk so much for so little? BUY IT NOW.

It is better to believe in all things and everybody than to know nobody can be trusted.

Justice to the Governor.

Governor Glenn said he would come to Salisbury if necessary. If our memory serves us correctly, the Governor went to Wadesboro, but those lynchings are still resting in peace.—Newton News.

The writer of the flippant paragraph makes no effort to be just. The Governor did go to Wadesboro and the officers there backed and urged on by the Governor, arrested about twenty of the lynchings. It was no fault of the Governor that when these cases came to trial the court quashed the indictment. And it was no fault of Judge Shaw, whose sympathies were against the lynchings, but who as an honest man was compelled to construe the law as he found it. The Governor also acted promptly in the Salisbury case and has given the officers all possible aid. Whatever else may be said of the Governor, it is no fault of his that lynchings have occurred during his administration, and it is only justice to him to say no.—The Landmark.

His Scheme Worked All Right

It is related that a certain man war recently very sad because his wife had gone out of town on a visit which she would not shorten in spite of his appeals to her to come home. He finally hit upon a plan to induce her to return. He sent her a copy of each of the local papers with one item clipped out, and when she wrote to find out what it was he clipped out he refused to tell her.

The scheme worked admirably! In less than a week she was at home to find out what that had been going on that her husband didn't want her to know about.

In Self Defence

Major Hamm, editor and manager of the Constitutionalist, Eminence, Ky., when he was fiercely attacked four years ago, by "Piles," bought a box of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy, of which he says: "It cured me in ten days and no trouble since." Quickest healer of Burns, Sores, Cuts and Wounds, 25c at all Druggists.

Gov. Glenn, of N. C., is evidently in dead earnest in his endeavor to put an end to mob violence, in the form of lynching in his State.—Baltimore News.

New Spelling.

The twelve words which the school superintendent's department of the National Educational Association convention advises should be given new spelling in the schools of the United States are these.

"Red" for read.
"Tuf" for tough.
"Ruf" for rough.
"Tung" for tongue.
"Yung" for young.
"Enuf" for enough.
"Trauf" for trough.
"Fether" for feather.
"Mesure" for measure.
"Plesure" for pleasure.
"Buzness" for business.

The End of The World

of troubles that robbed E. H. Wolfe of Bear Grove, Ia., of all usefulness, came when he began taking Electric Bitters. He writes: "Two years ago kindly troubles caused me great suffering, which I would never have survived had I not taken Electric Bitters. They also cured me of General Debility." Sure cure for all Stomach, Liver and Kidney complaints, Blood diseases Headache, Dizziness and Weakness or bodily decline. Price 50c. Guaranteed by all Druggists.

The shirt-sleeve orator is becoming famous. Col. Estill candidate for Gov. in Georgia spoke to a coatless crowd in his shirt sleeves in Augusta. A preacher in Berwick, Pa., took off his coat Sunday saying: "Brethren, I think we could worship just as well if not better if we pull off our coats." They are all following the example set by Gov. Glenn before he was nominated for Governor. Sometimes when it was very hot he would "shuck" his collar as well as his coat.—News and Observer.

Unnecessary Expenses.

Acute attacks of colic and diarrhoea come on without warning and prompt relief must be obtained. There is no necessity of incurring the expense of a physician's service in such cases if Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is at hand. A dose of this remedy will relieve the patient before a doctor could arrive. It has never been known to fail, even in the most severe and dangerous case and no family should be without it. For sale by all dealers at Boone and by Blowing Rock Drug Co.
